

International Community Corrections Association Virtual Public Policy Forum Agenda – March 26, 2021

(Note: all times Eastern)

10:00-10:30 Welcome and Overview

Steve Woolworth, ICCA President and CEO, Evergreen Treatment Services, Seattle, WA
Elizabeth Pyke, Director of Government Affairs, National Criminal Justice Association

This session will set the stage for the day's panel discussions. Ms. Pyke will share insights about the climate on Capitol Hill for criminal justice legislation, the FY22 funding cycle, and early priorities of the Biden Administration.

10:30-11:30 Current Issues in Cross-System Integration

Moderator: Steve Woolworth, ICCA President and CEO, Evergreen Treatment Services, Seattle, WA
Gabrielle de la Gueronniere, Director of Policy, Legal Action Center and National HIRE Network (confirmed)
Dan Mistak, Director of Health Care Initiatives for Justice-Involved Populations, Community Oriented Health Services (confirmed)
Terri Power, Associate Director, Corporation for Supportive Housing (confirmed)
Brooke Paige, Director, Southwest Region, Corporation for Supportive Housing (confirmed)

Experts in housing, employment services, and health care will discuss innovations in services and the possibility for collaborative action and federal legislation that address the needs of justice involved populations.

11:30-11:45 Break

11:45-12:30 Keynote Discussion: Rep. David Trone (D-MD) (confirmed)

Moderator: Ellen Donnarumma, Vice President for Justice Services, Community Resources for Justice

Rep. Trone will discuss criminal justice reform in the 117th Congress, where bipartisan consensus can be found, and opportunities for cross-sector collaboration.

12:30-1:00 View from the Bureau of Prisons

Moderator: Elizabeth L. Curtin, ICCA Policy Committee Chair
Jon Gustin and Dana DiGiacomo, Residential Reentry Branch, Federal Bureau of Prisons (invited)

This session will provide an update on Bureau of Prisons priorities and activities with emphasis on the response to the COVID 19 pandemic and policy and practice priorities of the Biden Administration.

1:00-1:45 Lunch Break

1:45-2:45 Perspectives on Criminal Justice Reform

Speakers in this session will be from national organizations working to reform the federal, state and local justice systems. They will discuss current policy and federal legislation from the perspective of the advocacy, faith and law enforcement communities.

2:45-3:00 Break

3:00-3:45 The Nuts and Bolts from Capitol Hill

Moderator: TBD

Stephanie Trifone, Counsel, Office of Sen. Dick Durbin, Senate Judiciary Committee (invited)

Monalisa Dugue, Chief Counsel, House Judiciary Crime Subcommittee (confirmed)

Staff for the key congressional committees will discuss legislation of particular interest to the community corrections community.

3:45-4:00 Break

4:00-4:30 View from the Bureau of Justice Assistance

Moderator: TBD

Kristen Mahoney, Acting Director, Bureau of Justice Assistance (confirmed)

Ruby Qazilbash, Associate Deputy Director, Bureau of Justice Assistance (confirmed)

Senior officials from the Bureau of Justice Assistance will discuss initiatives of the Biden Administration to support community corrections.

4:30-5:00 Moderated conversation on future issues in community corrections

Moderator: Steve Woolworth, ICCA President, and CEO, Evergreen Treatment Services, Seattle, WA